

HPRP

Slide 1:

If you are struggling to pay rent and are at risk of being evicted, the Homeless Prevention and Rapid Re-Housing Program may be able to help you. The program also provides assistance to those who are already homeless find housing.

Slide 2:

In order to qualify for the program, individuals or families must be at risk of becoming homeless and need temporary help with rent or utilities. The program can even help move participants to another rental if necessary.

Individuals or families who are already on the streets, in emergency shelters or transitional housing programs may also qualify for the program, which will obtain and retain housing.

Slide 3:

In order to take part in the program participants must meet the following requirements.

You must first meet with a case manager to determine your eligibility for the program.

Your income must be below 50% of the your Area Median Income

And you must be homeless or at risk of being homeless with no appropriate housing options and lack the financial resources and support networks to obtain immediate housing or remain in housing.

Slide 4:

The Homeless Prevention and Rapid Re-Housing Program provides help with

Rent

Security or utility Deposits

Moving Costs

Motel Vouchers

Slide 5:

To apply for the program you can contact your local Human Resource Development Council Office. To find your local office click on the link on your screen or call the Citizen's Advocate in the Governor's Office at 1-800-332-2272.